

PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION.

DR. WHITAKER'S "HISTORY OF CRAVEN" being a Work much esteemed and sought after, and having become so scarce that a small-paper copy of the second edition in fair order could not be procured for less than about eight guineas, Mr. Dodgson, having purchased the original copper plates, decided to republish the work; he did me the honour to consult me upon the subject, and at his request I undertook to edit it.

Every endeavour has been made to verify the statements in the original work, and from personal examination of the various localities, and also from numerous sources, to add much additional matter, and to correct errors in the transcription of epitaphs, &c.

Great attention has been paid to the heraldry and genealogy, particularly of that of the Clifford family; and throughout the district all heraldry and monumental inscriptions in the churches have been copied, and are here printed. The great Clifford picture at Appleby Castle, the original of the damaged picture formerly in Skipton Castle, has been very fully described, as also have the Clifford monuments in Appleby Church.

Skipton Castle has been surveyed, and a plan is for the first time published. Plans of Salley and Kirkstall Abbeys are also introduced, and that of Bolton Abbey has been corrected, and recent discoveries added. Many additional pedigrees are given, and so far as has been found possible, those printed by Dr. Whitaker have been continued to the present time. The armorial bearings of each family have been engraved, chiefly from drawings by Mr. J. H. Metcalfe.

The Institution Books at York and Ripon have been searched, and the lists of rectors and vicars corrected and continued to the present year.

The text of the second edition has been strictly followed, and all new matter defined by being placed within brackets []; the only cases in which alterations have been made without attention being called are when inscriptions had been erroneously printed and are here corrected.

Irrespective of the work in the pedigrees, an idea can be formed of the quantity of new matter introduced, from the fact that the historical portion of the last edition occupied only 507 pages, whilst in this it fills 592 pages, notwithstanding that the additions and a large portion of the charters, letters, &c., are printed in a small type.

It should be remarked that information respecting the present state of the towns and manufactures must not be sought for here, as it can be obtained in any good Gazetteer.

With the exception of one plate (that of the armorial window at Gisburne Park), the whole of those in the edition of 1812 are reproduced, and the following have been added:—The Interior of Mitton Church, Plans of Salley and Kirkstall Abbeys, Skipton Castle, and the Portrait of General Lambert, which was kindly presented by S. M. Milne, Esq., of Calverley House. There are also many woodcuts of views and antiquities, almost all of which are engraved by Messrs. R. & E. Taylor of London, or Mr. R. W. Utting. Lieut.-Col. Nowell presents the views of Netherside Hall and Netherside Glen, and J. W. Tottie, Esq., that of Coniston Hall.

I am indebted to many friends for assistance during the progress of the work, amongst them the following must be specially mentioned: Edward Hailstone, Esq., F.S.A., &c., allowed me free access to the invaluable collection of Yorkshire Works in his library at Walton Hall; Wyatt Papworth, Esq., made many searches for me at the British Museum; S. M. Milne, Esq., of Calverley House, accompanied me in the examination of the greater part of the district, and rendered me much valuable assistance; Ralph Assheton, Esq., M.P., of Downham Hall, the Rev. Canon Boyd, of Arncliffe, the Rev. J. A. Wilson, of Bolton by Bolland, the Rev. C. Bellairs, of Bolton Abbey; and many others, have furnished me with much local information, to all of whom I beg here to tender my thanks.

In order to render the work capable of easy reference, a voluminous index has been provided.

Mr. Miall's Chapter on the Geology, Natural History, and Pre-Historic Antiquities of the district will be found a valuable contribution, and has the advantage of being illustrated with an entirely new Geological Map and Section.

In conclusion, no expense has been spared in the paper, printing, engraving, and binding (and great pains have been taken in correcting the sheets for the press to avoid errors); Messrs. Cassell Petter & Galpin who publish the work in London for Mr. Dodgson, are also the printers. We therefore trust that our united efforts will have produced a work which will be satisfactory to the subscribers: if so, the labour and anxiety will not have been endured in vain.
