VOLUME I.

“Antiquities, or remnants of history, are ‘tanquam tabula naufragii,’ when industrious persons, by an exact and scrupulous diligence and observation, out of monuments, names, words, proverbs, traditions, private records and evidences, fragments of stories, passages of books that concern not story, and the like, do save and recover somewhat from the deluge of time. In these kinds of imperfect histories I do assign no deficiency, for they are ‘tanquam imperfecta mista,’ and therefore any deficiency in them is but their nature.”—LORD BACON, Advancement of Learning, book ii.
